THE WONDERFUL COMPANY AWARDS $600,000 TO CENTRAL VALLEY NONPROFITS

Wonderful Community Grants Program Expanded to Delano and McFarland, Offering Critical Funding to Meet Community Needs

Los Angeles (January 29, 2019) –The Wonderful Company and its owners, Lynda and Stewart Resnick, have awarded $600,000 to the 2019 recipients of their flagship grants program, Wonderful Community Grants. These grants reflect the Resnicks’ commitment to giving back in the communities where their employees live and work. Since its inception, the program has provided $1.5 million to hundreds of worthy nonprofits throughout the Central Valley.

Through location-based investment in the towns of Avenal, Wasco, Sanger and Del Rey, and now Delano and McFarland, these grants—which focus on health and wellness, supporting families, and community beautification—offer local organizations funds to make a profound impact in real time. The 2019 Wonderful Community Grants will go to 15 nonprofits, funding 22 projects and programs that address critical needs in their local communities.

“Hundreds of our Wonderful Citrus plant employees call Delano and McFarland home, and expanding the grant program to this area feels like a natural progression,” said Andy Anzaldo, COO of Philanthropy for The Wonderful Company. “Wonderful Community Grants will complement our already deep philanthropic commitment to the region, which includes our first charter school, Wonderful College Prep Academy, and the new Wonderful Fitness Court in McFarland.”

Wonderful Community Grants began in 2016 in Avenal and Wasco and expanded in 2017 to include the Sanger/Del Rey area. With the addition of the Delano/McFarland region for the 2019 grant cycle, Wonderful Community Grants now awards up to $600,000 annually. Each of the four communities receives up to $150,000, with grants ranging from $5,000 to $50,000.
